

We have put together a sample itinerary to help you to fuel your daydreams!

DAY 1 - On arrival in Maun, you are met & transferred by plane and a game drive to the camp which overlooks a seasonal flood plain lagoon. After lunch under the trees, there is usually time for a rest before the evening ride where you can get to know your horse. Return to a candle-lit dinner.

DAY 2 - Awoken by a cup of tea or coffee in bed, followed by a light breakfast you then ride westwards following elephant trails from one palm island to another, through seas of grass, into the backcountry. After lunch and a siesta, ride out into the plains, later enjoying a refreshing drink while the sun goes down.

DAY 3 - Leave camp early to investigate fresh game tracks, joining the rare semi-aquatic antelope, the red lechwe, as they thunder through the water meadows. A champagne breakfast is waiting for you under a large baobab tree. The evening ride is spent exploring the lower flood plains where elephant often gather at a pool. As dusk closes in, have drinks around the fire.

DAY 4 - Ride through different country, making your way through clouds of bushman hair grass to plains dotted with fig trees. You might encounter giraffe or shy antelope while passing through mopane woodlands. Your pace increases as you break out onto the flood plains, often disturbing troops of baboons. Returning to the camp for an afternoon spent at leisure and later a night drive by spotlight.

DAY 5 - While staff pack up, you leave for the fly-camp, riding deeper into the heart of the delta. On reaching another river system you find your fly-camp already set up, looking out over a favourite elephant watering hole. Stay here for a one night bush experience. The afternoon may be spent swimming or walking. Fires are lit at night, creating a strong human presence to keep marauding animals away from the horses. Night watches are fun and guests usually join in.

DAY 6 - Having kept watch under the stars, the next morning splash through water on the vast open plains, home to wildebeeste and zebra. The riding may be fast as you approach deep reedy areas full of bird life. After your break, ride back to Macatoo along the myriad of waterways lined with large trees.

DAY 7 - Your last full day's riding in this magical place takes you cantering through the shallow flood plains, admiring the deeper pools of lilies. Here, the buffalo gather in numbers and you have to creep up to them using islands for cover. The evening offers a last quiet ride with memorable smells of sage as the sun goes down with final sundowners in a surprising location.

DAY 8 - For your final ride, you will go along some of the high palm islands which offer great vistas. You'll maybe take a final exhilarating gallop and run with the game before returning to camp to prepare for your onward journey.
